

Distributor Corporate Statement

I, test of test Inc with headquarters at test Los Angeles California 90012 hereby swear that to the best of my knowledge and belief, all products listed for export and for which I request ACMA certification are distributed by test Inc in conformance with the following practices and regulations:

- All products which I am currently requesting or will ever request to be certified by ACMA are manufactured in the United States
- All products distributed by test Inc are in compliance with state and federal regulations. Documentation is on file with test Inc that substantiates these claims and is available upon request for agencies of the United States government (FDA, USDA), local departments of Health or officers of ACMA
- All products are identical to those sold in the United States, Products are freely sold in interstate commerce throughout the United States. Documentation is on file with test Inc that substantiates these claims and is available upon request for agencies of the United States government (FDA, USDA), local departments of Health or officers of ACMA
- All products distributed by test Inc are produced according to Good Manufacturing Practices as outlined in Title 21, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR, Parts 700.23700.26) Documentation is on file with test Inc that substantiates these claims and is available upon request for agencies of the United States government (FDA, USDA), local departments of Health or officers of ACMA.
- All products distributed by test Inc meet all standards to be considered free of BSE (Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy): All products are produced according to Title 21, Code of Federal Regulations, 700.27, Use of Prohibited Cattle Materials in Cosmetic Products, October 11, 2006. Documentation is on file with test Inc that substantiates these claims and is available upon request for agencies of the United States government (FDA, USDA), local departments of Health or officers of ACMA.

█ All products distributed by test Inc meet all standards to be considered free of TSE (Transmissible Spongiform Encephalopathy's): All products containing ovine, caprine or bovine materials are produced according to Title 21, Code of Federal Regulations, 700.27, Use of Prohibited Cattle Materials in Cosmetic Products, October 11, 2006. Documentation is on file with test Inc that substantiates these claims and is available upon request for agencies of the United States government (FDA, USDA), local departments of Health or officers of ACMA

█ test Inc will be held legally responsible to insure that any changes including edits, deletions, or additions to the product list are in agreement with the above statements

█ test Inc agrees that ultimate responsibility for accurate information rests upon their officers and warrants that the product lists submitted to ACMA will contain only those products which conform to this agreement.

test

Date

Signature of test Inc Officer